Foreign Affairs! Realities...

I'm sorry we're there, fighting - POW...

I don't really know why we're there - (but)
I've never really taken the time to learn what I'm going now,

Possibly if I had a greater background, I would have a deeper understanding...

Husband: I don't know if he feels we should be there -
I think he feels we should get out. I know he feels the sons of friends

Stolen from the Pentagon

We found the budget was too small to buy a newspaper we wouldn't read...
I don't want you to think we're illiterate.

I know we should get out with honor - I know
we could just physically put troops on ships, physically, but I don't think that's the answer.

X [In this case, "education" is something to be risen above;
it would be a plus if you got no ideology along with it, in your mind at college. If we could send him to AB, for him to read all PH...]

It's an involvement of my country - if I were

There should be a solution to that situation - it should be an honorable one.

... Any people should have the right to govern themselves

Those people wanted our help at one time, and we committed ourselves...

Any involvement your government is, I would support.

At one point I believed total oil. support of NVN was possible, or not now. Invasion of NVN was at one time possible, and would have been a good solution.
